THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE L.NARASIMHA REDDY

WRIT PETITION NO. 18965 OF 2005

O R D E R:

The petitioner was appointed as an Attender, on a consolidated salary of Rs.1,000/- per month, through proceedings dated 20.5.1999, issued by the first respondent. Subsequently, the salary was enhanced from time to time, and at present, he is being paid a sum of Rs.1,850/- per month. The grievance of the petitioner is that another attender by name, Anwar Khan, who is said to have been appointed subsequent to him, is being paid the consolidated salary at the rate of Rs.2,800/- per month, and though he has made several representations in this regard, no action has been taken thereon.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri A.M.Qureshi, learned Standing Counsel for the respondents.

A perusal of the orders of appointment, dated 20.5.1999, and the subsequent orders issued from time to time, disclose that the petitioner has been appointed on a consolidated pay of Rs.1,000/- per month, and it was enhanced to Rs.1,850/-, as of now. Whether the service conditions of Anwar Khan are the same, as those of the petitioner, and whether the two instances are distinguishable, needs to be considered by the first respondent. This court cannot record any finding on such aspects. The petitioner had submitted a representation dated 18.1.2005, pointing out his grievance. The first respondent cannot keep the matter pending, indefinitely.

Hence, the writ petition is disposed of, directing the first respondent to pass appropriate orders, on the representation dated 18.01.2005, submitted by the petitioner, within a period of two months, from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. There shall be no order as to costs.
